

Paper submission for the Special Issue of the International Journal of Production Economics (IJPE), selected papers from the 21th International Symposium on Inventories

Selected papers from the Symposium will be published as a Virtual Special Issue of the International Journal of Production Economics, one of the leading journals publishing inventory related articles. The submission, review and publication process follow the standard processes of the journal via Elsevier Editorial Manager (<https://www.editorialmanager.com/proeco/default1.aspx>). Every accepted paper is allocated to the next volume of the Journal and there will be a collection online for all papers that belong to that special ISIR issue.

Paper submission

To submit your paper

- 1) Go to <https://www.journals.elsevier.com/international-journal-of-production-economics> website. If you are a new user you should first register to use the Editorial Manager for IJPE with entering the requested information. Upon successful registration, you will be sent an e-mail with instructions to verify your registration.

If you are already registered as an author or a reviewer, please do not register again. Select log in from the menu at the top of the site, enter your username and password and then click the appropriate log in button.

- 2) When you choose New Submissions – Submit New Manuscript, select Article Type VSI: ISIR 2022.

The deadline for submitting the manuscripts is OCTOBER 28, 2022.
